UNION MEMORIAL SERVICE.

It Was Largely Attended at the M. E. Church, South, Sunday Evening.

Memorial services were held jointly by all the churches of Tempe Sunday evening at the M. E. church, south. The attendance was exceptionally large. Seats had been held for the members of the G. A. R. and the members of C company, N. G. A. Both turned out in full force, the latter having forty men present. The sermon was preached by Rev. J. C. Chappell of the Baptist church, and embodied three propositions, briefly, as follows:

First: As a Christian nation we should not glory in war. We should deprecate war and in every honorable way seek to avoid it, but we should recognize its inevitableness up to the present time in human history, and in the interest of peace and for the defense of right we should be ready at all times for war, when the occasion for war arises. The war of the revolution, the civil war and the Spanish war were cited as illustrations from our own history of the fact that there are great crises in the affairs of a people, when war is inevitable, when it is the only possible means of deciding grave issues, and that under these circumstances, horrible as it is, war is righteous and its results are beneficent. We cannot be at all certain that there will never again be a call for such wars. The cross of Christ is eloquent of the fact that so long as there is wrong upon earth, issues will arise calling for the shedding of blood. Let us do our utmost in behalf of peace, but when a clear call to arms comes, the best manhood and truest Christian character of our nation will be ready to respond.

Second: As a Christian nation we should not glorify the profession of arms, but we should remember with deepest gratitude the patriotic sacrifices of our soldiers. This is the more true because our soldiers are not professionals, but men whose business it is of peace, and who take up arms in response to the call of duty, patriotism and honor. We cannot measure the sacrifices they have made. We cannot repay them. We should not glorify the profession of arms, but we should remember with deepest gratitude the patriotic sacrifices of our soldiers. This is the more true because our soldiers are not professionals, but men whose business it is of peace, and who take up arms in response to the call of duty, patriotism and honor. We cannot measure the sacrifices they have made. We cannot repay them.

Third: As a Christian nation we should not glorify the profession of arms, but we should remember with deepest gratitude the patriotic sacrifices of our soldiers. This is the more true because our soldiers are not professionals, but men whose business it is of peace, and who take up arms in response to the call of duty, patriotism and honor. MESA

Mrs. Heaston, wife of H. H. Heaston, agent of the P. & E. at Mesa, passed peacefully away Monday morning. Mrs. Heaston had been afflicted with bronchial trouble for about two years, and was brought to the territory by Mr. Heaston about eighteen months ago for the benefit of her health. He came here from Florence, where he represented the P. & E. in the same capacity as here. Mrs. Heaston had been very sick since coming to Mesa, and her demise had been expected almost hourly for the past two months. She leaves one child, a bright little girl, to comfort her bereaved husband. Mrs. Heaston's mother has been here some time, and will remain in Mesa until the return of Mr. Heaston, who will go to Marion, Ind., with the body of his wife, where she will be buried.

Funeral services were held at the residence at 4:30 p. m. yesterday, President C. H. Hakes presiding. There was quite a large crowd of sympathizing friends present at the funeral. Since coming to Mesa, Mr. and Mrs. Heaston made a host of friends, all of whom sympathize deeply with Mr. Heaston in his loss.

RETURNED TO WASHINGTON.
Mrs. Artemus Thomas, aunt of Mrs. Dr. C. F. Hawley, returned to her home in Washington, D. C., on Sunday evening's train. She spent the winter here. She was delighted with our climate and will in all probability return in the fall.

SPENDING SOME PLEASANT HOURS.

Mr. James Chandler, brother of Dr. A. J. Chandler, and family spent last week in Mesa visiting with his brother. Mr. Chandler and his family started on the trip to their home in Canada yesterday.

COMES TO REMAIN.
Mr. Oscar McElrath and family arrived in Mesa on Sunday from Houston, Tex., and will in all probability make his future home here. Mr. McElrath formerly lived in Franklin county, Mississippi, and conducted a big teaming outfit there. He headed in this direction with his team, expecting to put them to work for the government, but a purchaser came along and he closed them out and came at once.

PERSONAL MENTION.
Grant Jones of Tempe was a business visitor in Mesa yesterday.

Will Bowen returned Sunday from Chicago, where he went to purchase a threshing machine. While in Chicago, Bowen visited with his folks in Iowa. His machine will be here in a few days and he will put it to work as soon as it arrives.

Dr. Chandler went to California on Saturday on a brief business trip. He will return Thursday.

Three wagon loads of telephone posts crossed the river above Lehi yesterday. They are to be used in the construction of the line connecting Mesa with the Roosevelt line.

Twenty-eight cars of sheep left Mesa Sunday for Kansas City. They were in charge of the new firm of Nelson, Scott Brothers and Mr. Porter. Messrs. Nelson, James and Sid Scott and Mr. Porter accompanied them.

Will Amos left for Show Low, on the other side of the mountain, yesterday.

W. W. Pace of Thatcher paid Mesa a brief visit yesterday. He came over to Phoenix as a delegate to the anti-joint statehood convention. He will return home in a few days.

About fifty of Mesa's lovers of the drama attended the performance given by the Noble Dramatic company at the Hardwick theater. They were all delighted with the performance and the treatment accorded.

It seems strange that we hear of so many grass widows and so few grass widowers.—Philadelphia Record.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS.
Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

Even tears rolling down one's nose shouldn't cross the bridge until they come to it.—Philadelphia Record.

HERBINE.
Will overcome indigestion and dyspepsia; regulate the bowels and cure liver and kidney complaints. It is the best blood purifier and invigorator in the world. It is purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, and should you be a sufferer from disease, you will use it if you are wise.

R. N. Andrews, Editor and Mgr. Coconao and Rockledge News, Coconao, Florida, writes: "I have used your Herbine in my family and find it a most excellent medicine. Its effects upon myself have been a marked benefit. I recommend it unhesitatingly." 50c. Sold by Elvey & Hulett.

The woman who is clothed in her own righteousness must still pay the dressmaker.—Philadelphia Record.

GROWING ACHES AND PAINS.
Mrs. Josie Sumner, Bremont, Texas, writes, April 15, 1902: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment in my family for three years. I would not be without it in the house. I have used it on my little girl for growing pains and aches in her knees. It cured her right away. I have also used it for frostbitten feet with good success. It is the best liniment I ever used." 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold by Elvey & Hulett.

When it comes to performing the ceremony the marrying person would rather knot.—Philadelphia Record.

EXPOSURE.
To cold draughts of air, to keen and cutting winds, sudden changes of temperature, scanty clothing, undue exposure of the throat and neck after public speaking and singing, bring on coughs and colds. Ballard's Horehound Syrup is the best cure.
Mrs. A. Barr, Houston, Texas, writes, January 31, 1902: "One bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup cured me of a very bad cough. It is very pleasant to take." 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold by Elvey & Hulett.

The stately girl with the beautiful carriage has given place to the girl with the automobile.—Philadelphia Record.

A POSITIVE NECESSITY.
Having to lay upon my bed for 14 days from a severely bruised leg, I only found relief when I used a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment. I can cheerfully recommend it as the best medicine for bruises ever sent to the afflicted. It has now become a possession.
